About the Instructors ~

KAROL & GUY MONROE BRIDGE INSTRUCTORS

Karol and Guy Monroe are ACBL certified bridge instructors and directors and are actively involved in teaching, promoting bridge education, and mentoring new and advancing players.

Karol and Guy enjoy frequent travel and present bridge education programs for private groups and organizations throughout the United States. You will often find the Monroes on cruise ships worldwide, hosting private groups and shipboard bridge education programs, and presenting land based workshops. Guy and Karol compete in tournaments nationwide and have achieved the ACBL ranking of Gold Life Master.

The Monroes retired from the Seattle area in 2000 and relocated to the scenic Oregon Coast. Karol has worked extensively with well-known bridge educator and author, Audrey Grant, and is one of several teacher trainers in the Better Bridge organization.

Guy teaches bridge classes and presents director courses for the ACBL. In the summer months, Guy is an Oregon State Parks naturalist.

Guy and Karol are members of the ACBL Goodwill Committee, have held positions for the District 20 organization (Oregon, Southern Washington, Northern California, and Hawaii) chaired the IN program at the Reno NABC 2010, and support bridge education programs on a local and District level.

Karol and Guy enjoy and treasure the many new friends they have made while traveling and playing bridge, and invite you to share their enthusiasm and knowledge of this most intriguing card game.
